Deutsche Bank Japan to move its Japan operations

to the Toranomom-Azabudai Project in 2024

Deutsche Bank Group Japan today announced that it will move its Japan headquarters into a new tower within the Toranomom-Azabudai Project, which is currently under development.

The bank plans to move from its current location in Tameike-Sanno in 2024, following completion of the new project in 2023.

Deutsche Bank remains as committed as ever to its business in Japan, where the bank first put down roots 150 years ago.
