

DEUTSCHE BANK AMERICAS FOUNDATION SPONSORS THE THREE M PROJECT AT THE NEW MUSEUM

NEW YORK, February 12, 2009 – Deutsche Bank Americas Foundation, the philanthropic arm of Deutsche Bank in the United States, today announced its sponsorship of the Three M Project at the New Museum. The Three M Project is an ongoing partnership of the New Museum, New York, the Museum of Contemporary Art, Chicago, and the Hammer Museum, Los Angeles, to jointly commission, exhibit, and acquire contemporary art by artists whose work has not yet received significant recognition in the United States.

“Deutsche Bank’s sponsorship of the Three M Project underscores the bank’s dedication to contemporary art,” said Gary Hattem, President of the Deutsche Bank Americas Foundation. “Further, the Three M Project embodies the virtues of collaboration and entrepreneurship, which are principles we value greatly.”

The Three M Project, which is in its second cycle, is currently on display at the New Museum in New York City. For more information on the exhibits, please visit: <http://www.newmuseum.org/exhibitions>.

For further information, please call:
Renee Calabro, New York 212-250-5525
Media Relations, Deutsche Bank

About Deutsche Bank

Deutsche Bank <NYSE: DB> is a leading global investment bank with a strong and profitable private clients franchise. A leader in Germany and Europe, the bank is continuously growing in North America, Asia and key emerging markets. With 80,456 employees in 72 countries, Deutsche Bank offers unparalleled financial services throughout the world. The bank competes to be the leading global provider of financial solutions for demanding clients creating exceptional value for its shareholders and people.

www.db.com

About the Deutsche Bank Collection

The Deutsche Bank Collection is one of the most important corporate collections worldwide and includes over 53,000 works shown in bank offices on all five continents. The collection, which mainly concentrates on works on paper, mirrors the art of a century, ranging from post-war to the present day. For clients and visitors, the Deutsche Bank Collection is a unique and memorable encounter with contemporary art and an opportunity to experience the work of some of the most important artists of our time outside of an art museum.

www.deutsche-bank-art.com

www.db-artmag.com